TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

Thoresby Hall. This is the magnificent home of the Earl of Manvers, and is the third structure of the name. The first, the birthplace of the famous Lady Mary Wortley Montagu, was burned down in 1745. The last Duke of Kingston built the second Hall, which was demolished in 1868. There is a fine state drawing-room here, and a noble library. Armour and tapestry of great value are among its treasures, and a splendid Vandyke portrait of Charles I.
